In February we held our first online virtual Safer Neighbourhood Action Panel (SNAP) meeting. Your local Beat Managers provided updates and the new priorities were voted in. Our next SNAP meeting will be held virtually via Microsoft Teams on Thursday 29th April at 7pm.

If you would like to join the meeting or you have any issues or concerns you would like to put forward please email GtYarmouth-OperationalPartnership@norfolk.pnn.police.uk

WHAT'S HAPPENING IN YOUR AREA?

There have been some incidents of suspicious activity on the allotments in Ormesby so please be aware if you have an allotment there or elsewhere.

We have placed some signage on the allotments and we are carrying out patrols of the area including the surrounding fields and the woodland off Filby Lane.

There is some standard guidance in relation to property kept on allotments as far as ensuring items of value are not left or if they are, they are not left in plain sight and securing sheds/outbuildings as best as reasonably practicable. This would apply to all sheds and outbuildings in gardens also and another common theme would be to keep an eye out for neighbours properties and please report anything suspicious.

CURRENT NEIGHBOURHOOD PRIORITIES

- Addressing damage to vehicles parked in Brad-dock Road.

DATES FOR YOUR DIARY

- Next SNAP Priority Setting Meeting – 29/04/2021 at 7pm via Microsoft Teams.
