

Caister Parish Council

The Council serves a population of 9,000+ in Caister-on-Sea and falls within the district of Great Yarmouth. There are 16 Councillors who live in Caister and represent the village on various matters. The Council are effectively the third tier of local government, the other 2 being Norfolk County Council and Great Yarmouth Borough Council.

The Parish Council meets at the Council Hall at 7.00pm usually on the first Monday of the month (apart from when there is a Bank Holiday, when the meeting is moved forward or back).

There is always an opportunity during the meeting for the public to ask questions or raise issues, during the rest of the meeting the public is not allowed to participate but is very welcome to listen.

Views expressed by individual Councillors are not necessarily those of the Parish Council itself.
